Name of the programme: TELUGU DIWAS DAY

Date of the event: 29-08-2019

Chief Guest: Dr. V. Ravi Sankar

It is celebrated on the occasion of GIDUGU VENKATA RAMMURTHY RAO's birth anniversary, who is considered as the father of Telugu language that we are speaking now. (Vyavaharika Bhasha pithamahudu). The great emperor Srikrishnadevaraya, a polyglot himself, once said "Desa bhashalandhu telugu lessaa", depicting Telugu as the most versatile language he had ever come across. Rabindranath Tagore is said to have stated that Telugu is the sweetest of all (Indian) Languages. Unlike any other language, the poems, called "padhyaalu" in Telugu follow some special rules, called "Chandassu" which makes it extremely rhyming, gives a beautiful pronunciation and excellent meaning. Telugu is also famous for "AVADHANAM". It is a unique intellectual literary game played to test one's deep knowledge in language, creativity, logical ability. Telugu Story writing competition was organised at Aditya pharmacy college seminar hall.
